The volume of centralized capital construction completed in January 1949 amounted to 125.6 percent of that for the same period of 1948.

A number of enterprises which had assumed the obligation to complete the 1949 program for civilian housing construction ahead of schedule succeeded in fulfilling the first-quarter plan for housing construction in January. Among them were the following: Nevskiy Chemical Plant, Plant imeni Sverdlov, "Elektrosila" Plant, "Promet" Plant (director, Slepukhin).

At the same time, some individual enterprises were behind in fulfilling the first-quarter plan for civilian housing construction. These included: "Lenstan-kolit" Plant (director, Fragin), which fulfilled only 2.1 percent of the plan; "Ekonomsyzer" Plant (director, Arakcheyev), which fulfilled the plan 6.3 percent; "Svetlana" Plant which fulfilled the plan 20.5 percent.

The 1949 first-quarter retail trade turnover plan was fulfilled 30.8 percent by State and cooperative organizations in the city of Leningrad.

The following trade organizations were successful in fulfilling the plan: Leningrad "Gastronom" (manager, Kuvits); Kirovskiy General Store (director, Kotiyenko); Torgmortrans (Sea Trade Transport) (manager, Kiselev).

A number of the largest trade organizations did not assure the fulfillment of the 1949 first quarter plan for trade turnover. The Administration of Promtorgi (Industrial Trade) (chief, Selivankin) fulfilled only 27.1 percent of the first quarter plan in January and Frunze General Store (director, Shirokov) fulfilled only 29.5 percent.

Agricultural produce supplies increased considerably in Leningrad markets: 4 times as many potatoes, 5 times as many vegetables, 4 times as much meat, 3 times as much fish, 11 times as many eggs and 3½ times as much fruit and berries were sold to the population as in the same period of 1948.

Work of the most important enterprises and organizations of Leningrad city economy may be characterized by the following figures: the January 1949 plan for average daily performance was fulfilled 100.1 percent by the streetcar line, 102.7 percent by trolley buses, 104.2 percent by autobuses, and 105.2 percent by passenger taxis. This represented an increase in comparison with January 1948 as follows: 2.4 percent for streetcars, 43.8 percent for trolley buses, 30.9 percent for autobuses, and 93.6 percent for passenger taxis.
